FIGHT MAY BE CARRIED TO HIGH COURT

INJUNCTION MAY BE SOUGHT IN MATTER

Referendum petitions bearing approximately 600 odd signatures asking the city council to rescind resolution No. 892, which fixes the city hall in the Nicholl building, and to place the matter on the ballot at the April election, were filed with City Clerk A. C. Faris last night.

The petitions are said to have ten per cent of the registered vote of the last general election. Had twenty-five per cent of the vote been secured the city council would have had to call an immediate election to settle the matter.

MAY GO TO COURTS.

From the statements made by City Atorney D. J. Hall it is probable that he will contend the resolution which is asked rescinded is an administrative matter and not a legislative proposition and that the council is merely carrying out the wish of the people by moving to its new quarters.

On this basis the fight may be carried into the highest courts of the state.

Although the petitions asking the council to submit the matter of their moving to the people were filed last evening, a majority of the city offi-

IF YOU HAVE A ROOM TO RENT CALL UP 123

Persons having spare rooms for rent are requested to call Richmond 123 and give location of their lodgings.

This request is made by members of the New Year's committee in an effort to find accommodations for the large number of persons who will begin arriving here tomorrow for the New Year's celebration.

IS ILL

FREEHOLDERS TO FINISH CHARTER WORK NEXT WEEK

But one more meeting following that of this evening will be needed by the Board of Freeholders to complete their work of revising the present city charter.

Certain sections of the charter relative to the office of city health inspector have been shortened by the board with the exception of the clause pertaining to the duties of city physician which has been left as it is. The matter the freeholders deemed could be well taken care of by a resolution from the council.

S. P. BAR TO BE RUN IN FUTURE BY LEO PERSICO

The S. P. hotel bar which recently had its liquor license revoked by the city council for a violation of the city saloon ordinance, will be reopened after January 1 by Leo Persico, owner of the building.

Persico has purchased the stock and fixtures of a Pullman saloon and is awaiting final action from the council in the matter of the license transfer.

CURRY'S INJURY IS BAD, SILVER PLATE PLACED IN THIGH

First intimation of the seriousness of the injury which Water Commissioner R. H. Curry sustained several days ago at Tenth street when struck by a Santa Fe train was made known at the Craven hospital this morning when it was reported that a silver plate had been inserted in his left thigh.

The operation was performed by Dr. W. E. Cunningham from which Curry is said to be recovering nicely. Certain shattered bones in the leg made it necessary for the plate to be installed. He will probably be crippled for some time as the result of the injury.

SUIT FILED AGAINST DAN BARTON FOR $2600

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, Dec. 28.—Dennis J. Sugrue, a former clothing merchant of Richmond, filed suit in the superior court today against Daniel Barton of that city for $2600 alleged due on a promissory note. The note is said to be dated January 4, 1913, and according to the plaintiff has never been paid. The note carries seven per cent interest.

ACTIVE INTEREST SHOWN IN CELEBRATION BY LAND CONCERN

One of the first large concerns to assist the New Year's celebration in this city is the Contra Costa Realty company. A letter which the celebration committee received from the land company yesterday follows:

New Year's Day Celebration Committee, Richmond, Cal.

Gentlemen:

We wish to extend our offer of assistance in the matter of the celebration of the opening of wharf No. 1 or the inner harbor project and we desire to assure you that matters of interest to the welfare of Richmond will receive our hearty support.

Inclosed please find check for $50 for the fund.

The opening of wharf No. 1 is indeed reason for a celebration and will result in additional publicity being given to the remarkable developments made by Richmond.

We take pleasure in advising you that on January 1, 1917, our main office will be located in Richmond and shall handle the business of the East Richmond Land company, Downer Land company, Schapiro Land company, Queen Land company, San Pablo Land company and Martinez Land company.

This, as you can realize, means increased business for Richmond banks, postoffice, merchants and commercial institutions, and we are indeed glad that the time has now arrived when we can make Richmond our home.

We are expecting that the year 1917 will be a year of great prosperity for our city and for all those who are doing business in it. The companies mentioned above, now being merged into one corporation, known as the Contra Costa Realty company, with offices at Ninth street and Macdonald avenue, will use its influence not only as a corporation, but also as individuals connected with the corporation in the upbuilding of Richmond.

We are further pleased to state that we have learned of several large projects which are in the process of formation that will prove of benefit to Richmond and the efforts of the Contra Costa Realty company shall be used also along these lines, as well as along the lines previously mentioned.

Trusting that the year 1917 will be a banner year and also a forerunner of years of prosperity for Richmond, we are

Very truly yours,

B. SCHAPIRO & CO.,

HIGH PRICES TOLD OF IN GERMANY IN LETTER TO F. MEYER

Lacking but a few days of two months a letter which in ordinary times would have made the trip in fifteen days, was received by Fred Meyers, manager of the Pullman Water company, yesterday from his mother, Mrs. W. Meyers, at Westphalin, Germany.

The letter in part follows:

"Butter which before the war was exceedingly cheap is now sixty-five cents a pound. Meat is selling for a similar price. The crop of rye this year, while scant, will be sufficient to carry us through the winter. Potatoes are $10 a hundred pounds and are very scarce. The potato crop throughout Germany is nothing extra this year. The government deals out the potato supply to each family. Each family is allowed 15 pounds a day, no more and no less."

The letter contains hardly any mention of the war.

Mrs. Meyers was formerly a resident of San Leandro, prior to returning to Germany.

In closing she thanked her son in this city for a Christmas present sent to her a few days ago which she states will come in quite handy in purchasing foods at their present high cost.

INQUEST FOR ATLAS POWDER WORKER TONIGHT

An inquest will be held at the Smallwood undertaking parlors this evening to ascertain the death of Paul Valentine, employe of the Atlas Powder company at Giant, who dropped dead December 1 while lifting a box of powder.

Valentine was a native of Austria and had been in the employ of the powder company for 30 years. He was 68 years of age.

IN COURT TOMORROW

HEALTH OFFICE ASKED FOR A BIRTH REPORT OF M. RAPHAEL

From Montreal in the Dominion of Canada, the long arm of the British government stretched itself to this city today to prove or disapprove the legality of Martin Raphael as the sole heir to a large estate.

WAS BORN HERE.

According to a communication received from the public administrator at Montreal by City Health Officer C. R. Blake, Raphael is said to have been born in this city.

Records as far back as 1905 are being traced at the health office in an effort to establish the identity of Raphael and assist the government in disposing of the estate.

MIGHT NOT BE LISTED.

According to Dr. Blake, there is a possibility that the birth may not have been recorded for several months after Raphael was born owing to the dilatory metres of delays in making their birth reports.

That the estate is a valuable one is evidenced by the efforts which the Montreal authorities are making to establish Raphael's identity.

GOES EAST

J. M. Trevor, who has been visiting at the home of L. D. Huntsberger in this city for the past week, left last night for his home in New York.

ATTENTION MOOSE!

All Moose are requested to attend the regular meeting this evening at Moose hall at which time important business will be transacted. By order of,

GAME WARDEN'S BODY THOUGHT ANCHORED IN RIVER

STOCKTON, Dec. 28.—Deputy Sheriff McAllister and companions yesterday started for Bouldin island with the intention of dynamiting the river in the hope of bringing to the surface the body of Ray Heacock, deputy game warden, who was shot and killed by Antone Labardo, Pittsburg fisherman.

THINKS ANCHOR USED.

McAllister, who has been one of the active workers in the case, says that in his opinion Heacock was killed on the Italian's boat. His theory is that the remains were taken down the river and thrown into deep water, and that it is possible an anchor was tied to the body.

STOCKTON, Dec. 28.—Sheriff W. H. Riecks announced today he is satisfied that Ray Heacock died while in the bottom of the boat occupied by his slayer, Antone Labardo, and two other fishermen at Bouldin island.

This theory is supported by the finding of bullet holes of 45 caliber in the boat, which was found at Pittsburg. Heacock used a 45 caliber revolver. The sheriff believes Heacock's body was spirited away.

THE ADVENTURE OF EGGS

The Wicks legislative committee of New York, which has been investigating high prices, reveals this story of the adventures of a carload of eggs.

The eggs were laid early last June by Indiana hens. The various producers got about 20 cents a dozen for them. By the time they amounted collectively to a carload they were sold to a butter and egg wholesalers' firm for 24 1-2 cents a dozen.

That firm sold them, soon afterwards, to a dealer who retails eggs by a system of peddlers' wagons. He paid 25½ cents a dozen for them, put them into storage and held them for a rise in the market. Three months later they had risen to 29 cents a dozen. He sold them back, at that figure, to the firm he had bought them from. On the same day that firm sold them to another firm for 30 cents. The latter company found that they were not so fresh as represented—that in fact, they were storage "seconds" rather than "firsts." The original wholesalers were obliged to buy them back at 30 cents.

By this time it was October. The eggs were four months old, and getting older every minute. They were sold, frankly as "seconds" this time, to a new wholesaler at a slight profit. He sold them at a gain of $73.73 on the carload. The next day the market had advanced, and he bought them back at a quarter of a cent less than he had got for them. Then he sold the lot to a candler who supplies eggs to restaurants and hotels receiving 34 cents a dozen. Those that were "fair" were sold to grocers at 42 cents and retailed at 45 to 55 cents a dozen.

That is the way cold storage, as managed today, "benefits" the public. In the constant trading half a dozen or more profits are made on them before they are even offered to the consumer. Sometimes the eggs are not transferred at all—the transaction is merely a paper one—and that's frank speculation. Sometimes the eggs are really transferred, and that's bad for the eggs.

Why can't we have eggs put in a storage house in the spring and summer, kept there until they are needed, and then sold direct to the distributor or the consumer without any glambler's profits? Why should eggs costing 20 cents to produce in June sell for more than 30 cents in December?

PROSPERITY AND HAPPINESS

Says a writer in the Ohio State Journal: "As time moves on the virtue of self-denial is more and more needed. The social fascinations, the alluring fashions, the varied amusements, the fun and fiction in reading, the gadding mania, the every day gossip and all the glitter and hum of this materialistic age strongly demand the exercise of the virtue of self-denial. In fact, there is no safety in any other way. Anyone who lets himself go loose among the blandishments of the day runs straight into the face of ruin."

The writer uses the wrong term when he names self-denial as the virtue that is to resist these peculiar allurements of the age. He should have said "sense." Self-denial somehow includes the idea of a right surrendered, of a legitimate privilege foregone for the sake of a greater end in view.

When we apply the term self-denial to the quality in man that is to resist the extravagant vanities of any time, we pre-suppose his perfect right to the free exercise of these vanities.

This is an error. Man has no right to excuses of any nature. Any violation of the spirit of moderation is a transgression against either himself or his fellow man, according as his act affects the one or the other.

But the writer is right in the danger which he sees for the race in the multiplicity of temptations of his age. It requires a sane and sensible mind indeed to safely steer a life course amid them.

Volumes have been written on the virtue of patient endurance of the afflictions of poverty. Greater volumes are needed on the greater virtue of resistance to the ills of prosperity.

Yes, we say "ills" advisedly. Prosperity is far from being a blessing to a large per cent of the human race. Not a community in the country but can point to numerous instances of the abuse of prosperity. Its wrecks are fairly strewn along life's road.

We sometimes wonder if our schools, our churches, our human betterment societies, and even our homes, are doing their duty in intelligently instructing the race in a course of sensible avoidance of the many peculiar vanities of the age. Most of these vanities are the direct outgrowth of an unprecedented prosperity, and the mind of the young, especially, needs to be particularly fortified against them. Are we doing this?

WOMEN WHO SHOP

It has often been said that the qualities the woman shopper seeks in the goods she buys are the superficial ones of appearance and cheapness. She has been accused of not caring particularly about the durability or practicalness of the article purchased.

A big department store undertook to find out for itself just what its women customers wanted to know about their purchases. So it tabulated the queries made concerning articles. The results were in favor of women.

Of 50 women considering the purchase of a trunk, 42 of them wished to be assured of the resistance quality of the lock. Size and space they could estimate for themselves; strength they asked about.

Of 50 women buying a certain kitchen utensil, 41 were chiefly interested in the small glass top. Was it firmly in place so it wouldn't always be falling off or getting broken?

Of 50 women considering the purchase of house dresses, 42 of them were most interested in the possibilities of washing well. Would the color run, would the goods shrink? Were the dresses too frilly and plaited to be easily ironed?

Inexpensiveness is certainly a big attraction these days. But there are more factors than the price that enter to make the goods expensive or cheap. According to the statistics of that store, women shoppers are looking for those factors. It's a good hint to manufacturers, advertisers and merchants.

The Richmond business men declare that never before in the history of the city was the holiday business as good as the present season. Gentlemen, it is all due to advertising and the fact that you had the goods. Never in the history of Richmond were the merchants in possession of such splendid stocks of goods as they had this year. These two factors are bound to bring favorable results.

The weather is pretty cold, all right; still it is not as bad as it is in Montana where the thermometer registers something like 35 degrees below zero along about now.

Appearances are favorable to a good year during 1917 and Richmond is going to reap the full benefit of the prosperity which is due to arrive here in great bunches.

ROAST BEEF AT $7 A POUND FROM THE STOCK SHOW CHAMPION

When the grand champion steer, California Favorite, sold for $1.75 a pound as he stood in the ring, it meant a new record for the "cost of high living," nearly seven dollars a pound for the best cuts of this Christmas baby beef. Many cities bid, but Detroit will eat the beef.

Never before did a beef steer bring such a price, $1.50 a pound being the nearest approach to it. Boy victors of Iowa's Baby beef contests stood open-eyed while the bidding, started at 5 cents a pound, jumped up and up. The sale was made for the University of California by Clay, Robinson & Company in just nine minutes. Chicago packers bid high, but Mose Greenwald for a Detroit house added his defiant nickle after nickle by a nod until, "$1.75 a pound, sold," shouted the auctioneer. Wires went to the automobile city to prepare to parade the grand champion bought at a price of $1,960. For Christmas rib roasts that is a fabulous figure.

Not a kernel of corn had been fed to this California champion—no other grain than barley. In breeding it was a Hereford sire by a Shorthorn dam, stall fed by an Aberdonian herdsman, Alex McDonald. "The best calf ever shown on the continent," was the claim by the head of the victorious college after paying tribute to McDonald.

NOTES FROM THE PLAYHOUSES

OAKLAND ORPHEUM

The beautiful Madeleine Harrison, whose dancing in the "Bankoff Girlie and company" ballet offering under the management of Mr. Martin Beck, at the Oakland Orpheum has taken the public by storm, wears a diamond barrot, or hair ornament, a present to her from the Rajah of Baoul, an East Indian prince, and ward of the English goverament. When Miss Harrison was in London the season before last she met the Rajah, who instantly became infatuated with the charming American actress and dancer, and made her many presents, among them being the famous barrot she now wears every time she steps upon the stage.

The barrot has become a thing every woman envies, and Miss Harrison always takes the greatest pleasure showing it to her friends. This barrot contains fifty-four diamonds, varying in size from one-half to two carats. Miss Harrison learned from the Rajah that the barrot he bestowed upon her was one that had come down through his family for a number of generations, and was credited with bringing upon its possessor all the good things anybody could want—health, fame and fortune. The prince gave the priceless jewels to Miss Harrison while she was studying music in London, and she often corresponds with the prince, who is said now to be "somewhere in France," fighting for the allies.

The charming dancer treasures this costly handpiece above all her other possessions, and she has a great deal of jewelry. She invariably wears it with several ropes of pearls, as she believes the pearls aid materially in the display of the diamonds in the great "lucky heirloom." Miss Harrison has met with the greatest success as a dancer, and she attributes her great luck to the fact that she is the possessor of the ornament she wears as the gift of the East Indian prince.

Miss Harrison dances in three numbers in her newest vehicle, and those who have seen the diamonds admire them best in "The Dance of the Dream," which she dances with Ivan Bankoff.

DOCTOR IS SUED FOR DIVORCE BY WIFE AT CONCORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Dr. Andrew Jackson Stevens, dentist, is sued for divorce by Mrs. Mary L. Stevens, living near Concord, Contra Costa county. She charges cruelty and says Dr. Stevens has an income of $400 a month. She asks $100.

The suit, filed in Concord, was transferred to the local courts on motion of Dr. Stevens on the ground he is a resident of this city.

The Stevens were married here September 23, 1911, and became estranged last October, the wife says.

Mrs. Stevens alleges her husband refused to accompany her to this city shortly before the birth of their child and visited her only once while she lay in a local hospital. When he did call, she charges, he talked of matters that made her hysterical.

Te treated her cruelly later, she nileges, and told her he did not love her.

OLD SCHOOLMATES MEET ACCIDENTLY AFTER LONG TIME

A gap of fifteen years was spanned by a chance meeting of two schoolmates at the office of the J. C. Owens Land company, Tenth street and Macdonald avenue, yesterday.

Bert Ward, of Goldfield, Nev., who came to Richmond for a short visit with S. W. Barnes, was leaving the office when he stepped right in the path of Jack Best, proprietor of the Home Laundry. Just as both were preparing a polite apology they recognized each other. Best and Ward had gone to school together in Nevada more than fifteen years ago.

STORM CAUSES BOARDS TO POSTPONE MEETING

Stormy weather of last evening was responsible for the members of the recreation committee of the Parent Teachers' association and the Playground Commission postponing their intended meeting until next week. The two committees were to have met in the office of City Superintendent W. T. Helms at the Lincoln school.

cials had their furnishings and fixtures packed preparatory to moving. The city clerk's and city attorney's offices went into their new headquarters at the Nicholl city hall today.

ALTERNATIVE.

Should the council take no action in the matter of the referendum petitions it is understood that a restraining order will be sought from the superior court in an effort to prevent the occupancy of the Nicholl building.

PROPONENTS MYSTERY.

Backers of the referendum petitions are somewhat of a mystery. Although circulators of the petitions stated that they did it to boost the Tenth street site, their affiliation with this project is denied by Attorney C. D. Horner, representing the Tenth street and Nevin avenue site.

Always Fooling Each Other.

Blanche Sweet has a lot of fun in the studio making up in different characters and fooling her co-players. Recently Theodore Roberts shaved off his beard and pulled a good one on her, and just when she came to the realization as to who it was the cameraman snapped the accompanying picture.

DENNIS O'HARA AND KATIE O'GRADY LEADING CHARACTERS IN PLAY TONIGHT

"Unprotected" has been selected as the title of the next Paramount picture in which the beautiful Lasky star, Blanche Sweet, will be seen at the Richmond theater today only. As Barbara King, a fine young artist, sentenced for murder, and leased out for convict labor in a southern turpentine camp, Miss Sweet has a role entirely different from any of the many in which she has heretofore appeared. A special cast has been selected to support her, including such prominent artists as Tom Forman, Theodore Roberts, Ernest Joy, Walter Long, Mrs. Lewis McCord, Robert Gray and Jane Wolff.

"THE SON OF ERIN"

The trouble started when Denni O'Hara in "A Son of Erin," at the Richmond theater Friday and Saturday, sent his photo taken in police uniform back to pretty Katie O'Grady. Katie had become very skeptical and wise to the ways of Americans. For, hadn't she learned of how they took fake policemen's pictures at a place called Coney Island.

"Sure, Dennis was a grand little liar." On the police force in such a short time! She would not be fooled into believing it.

Of course, when she was convinced and on her way to become his happy bride then it was that her unjust suspicion became a reality. This Pallas-Paramount story by an unexpected twist and a series of most interesting events leads to a truly satisfactory and logical climax. Dustin Farnum makes a very likeable young Irishman and opposite him Winifred Kingston is the reality of a fascinating colleen.

ST. PAUL'S FAIR TO CLOSE SATURDAY

A versatile program, bristling with many unique and entertaining features, has been arranged by Rev. Father Joseph Porta of St. Paul's Catholic church to close the four-day church fair on Saturday night.

One of the principal acts which has been scheduled for the evening is a vaudeville skit to be presented by Marian and Clifford, direct from a San Francisco showhouse. Little Miss Carrie Chaworth of this city will stage a number of fancy and folk dances.

Games and a general good time, including the serving of refreshments, will conclude the evening's affair.

BOY AS SANTA CLAUS GIVES PRESENTS

An old-fashioned home Christmas celebration and dinner was held at the residence of Harry Ells on Cutting boulevard on Christmas day by the Ells family and a dozen guests. Among those present were: Dr. Perry Saylor and wife, of London, England; Dr. Carpenter and wife, of Berkeley; M. O'Brien and wife, of Stockton; Dr. Davir Saylor and wife, of Berkeley.

One of the pleasing features of the day was a giant Christmas tree and the dispensing of presents by a small lad dressed up as Santa Claus, all the other guests being grounups.

The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all present who declared that never since they were children had they spent such a delightful Christmas.

RECORD NUMBER OF LETTERS NOT TAKEN

One of the largest lists of advertised letters yet to be made public by the local postal authorities is that for the week ending December 23 which totals 81.

The cause for such a large number of uncalled for mail matter is said to have resulted for the most part from improper addresses.

It is traditional that a man wants to be "dressed up" on New Year's day. Like the Fourth of July, Easter, when a man likes to feel at his best. And he can't feel that way unless he has on neat-fitting, up-to-date Clothes.

But this is the one time of the year when most men find it very difficult to provide themselves with needed Suit sand Overcoats. The heavy Christmas demand on everybody's pocketbook often influences men who need clothes badly to practice self-denial and use the money to buy Christmas presents for others.

But did you ever stop to think how easily a man can have a new Suit or Overcoat, or both, any time he wishes them? The solution of the "clothes problem" is CREDIT.

Cherry's Clothing Shops are the places that outfit hundreds of men like you on easy Installment Payments.

Cherry's have one shop, for ladies exclusively, at 515 Thirteenth street, Oakland; across the street, one for men, at 528. In San Francisco, 2400 Mission, corner Twentieth, and 1009 Market, above Sixth, are the two locations. Also Tacoma, Portland, Los Angeles and Sacramento.

THROW OUT THE LINE

Give Them Help and Many Richmond People Will Be Happier.

"Throw Out the Life Line"—
Weak kidneys need help.
They're often overworked—they don't get the poison filtered out of the blood.
Will you help them?
Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers.
Richmond testimony proves their worth.

T. P. Cummings, 1714 Macdonald Ave., Richmond, says: "I suffered from backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint. When I stooped, I often got a catch in the small of my back and I could hardly raise up. My kidneys acted irregularly. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured the backache and regulated the action of my kidneys."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cummings had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

HALF TON OF BUTTER IS GIVEN BY HOLSTEIN COW

WILLIAMS, Dec. 28.—More than $510 worth of butter was the yield during the last year of the cow Winnie Korndyke Cornucopia DeKol, a Holstein, owned by J. S. Gibson of Colusa county, which has just completed a year's test, breaking the coast record for butterfat production and the second highest milk yield in the world.

This cow's yearly yield was 1.200 pounds of butter and her milk totaled 31,034.2 pounds, upwards of 15,050 quarts.

MOTHER LOVE AIDS SON IN TRENCHES

It Brings Relief To Boy Standing His Watch Deep In Mud.

Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rains soaked him to the skin; the mud was deep. He had had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.
